1	A I don't think so. You know, it's usually		1 2	your testimony? A No.
2	self-explanatory.
3	Q And so "Reason for the Change," what does that		3	Q Did you know at that point you had to clarify
4	mean to you?		4	your testimony?
5	A It means what is the change about.		5	A No. I didn't know until I did this, whatever
6	Q The reason for the change.		6	date this was. It was all on that same date.
7	What is the reason for your change?		7	May 4.
8	A The reason for my change was that the clients		8	Q It was a month after your deposition?
9	that we referenced did not include cases where		9	A Yeah. When I got the transcript, I reviewed it
10	we did not file against Eastern Magnesia Talc.		10	and checked with Pat on how we arrived at that
11	Q So did you misspeak? Was it a typo? What was		11	number, confirmed it, and that's when I put
12	the		12	that change in there.
13	A No, I was yeah, I misspoke. I was incorrect		13	Q And then if you turn to page 115, lines 1 to

So as of 1997, you would have concluded that you had no product ID evidence for Southern Talc in the Ohio facilities? A No, no good – I mean, I'm not saying there's a total lack of evidence, but no real good evidence to be able to, you know, effectively pursue. Q Why would you continue to be able to sue Southern Talc? A It's the same situation as Eastern Magnesia, which is the other defendants are pointing at things, such as this document that you're pointing at here, and if I have an empty chair there, then it puts my client at a disadvantage. Q So even though you factually believed there was no product ID support, you continued to file claims against Southern Talc, fair? MR. ROTH: Objection. Foundation. I'm going to show you Exhibit 39, Defendants' Exhibit 39. This is a summons dated April 11, 2008 attaching a multiparty – a multi-defendant complaint on behalf of Jennifer Graham. Do you recognize this? A. Yes. Q. So this is roughly how many years after you say you believed Cahill when they told you there was no asbestos in Emtal talc? A. I would say roughly – roughly 15 years or so. Q. At any point did you call up Cahill and say "I believe you there's no asbestos in the talc, but I'm just going to keep filing cases anyway"? A. I don't think I ever had that conversation with them, no. Q. Did they ever have that conversation with you saying, "Hey, I thought we told you there's no

A Well, that's what they said in that. Whether they meant it or not, I don't know. Q Well, it ended up being all or nothing, correct? A I believe my response to Mr. Martillotta was I don't think any of my clients are going to, you know, balk at this settlement. If they are, I'll let you know and we'll cross that bridge when we get there. But we never had to cross that bridge because the clients were all in agreement. Q You brought all of the asbestos plaintiffs, talc plaintiffs, as a group to all of the talc defendants who were settling and it was a global deal, fair? MR. ROTH: Objection.
